proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest; and this Court having found that the notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED

THAT:

1. The relief requested in the Motion is granted, effective nunc pro tunc to the Committee Formation Date, as set forth herein.

2. The Committee shall implement the following Creditor Information Protocol in accordance with Bankruptcy Code sections 1102(b)(3)(A) and (B):

- a. Privileged and Confidential Information: The Committee shall not be required to disseminate to any entity (all references to "entity" herein shall have the meaning as defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(15)) (i) without further order of the Court, Confidential Debtor Information, Confidential Committee Information, or confidential or non-public proprietary information from other parties ("Confidential Non-Debtor Information," and collectively with Confidential Debtor Information and Confidential Committee Information, "Confidential Information") or (ii) any information subject to attorney-client or some other state, federal, or other jurisdictional law privilege (including attorney-work product), whether such privilege is solely controlled by the Committee or is a joint or common interest privilege with the Debtors or some other party ("Privileged Information"). In addition, the Committee shall not be required to provide access to information for or solicit comments from any entity that has not demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Committee, in its sole discretion, or to the Court, that it holds a claim of the kind described in Bankruptcy Code section 1102(b)(3).
- b. Information Obtained through Discovery: Any information received (formally or informally) by the Committee pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2004 or in connection with any formal or informal discovery in any contested matter, adversary proceeding, or other litigation shall not be governed by this Order but, rather, by any order governing such discovery. Nothing herein shall obligate the Committee to provide any such information that the Committee obtains from third parties.

- c. Creditor Information Requests: If a creditor (a “Requesting Creditor”) submits a written request to the Committee or the Committee Professionals for the Committee to disclose information (an “Information Request”), pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1102(b)(3)(A), the Committee shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no more than thirty (30) days after receipt of the Information Request, provide a response to the Information Request (a “Response”), including by providing access to the information requested or stating the reason(s) why the Committee cannot disclose the information requested by such Information Request. If the Response is to deny the Information Request because the Committee believes that the Information Request implicates Confidential Information or Privileged Information that needs not be disclosed, including, but not limited to, (i) pursuant to the terms of this Order or otherwise under Bankruptcy Code section 1102(b)(3)(A), (ii) because such disclosure is prohibited under applicable law, (iii) because such information was obtained by the Committee pursuant to an agreement to maintain it as confidential, or (iv) because the Information Request is unduly burdensome, the Requesting Creditor may, after a good faith effort to meet and confer with an authorized representative of the Committee (which could include the Committee Professionals) regarding the Information Request and the Response, seek to compel such disclosure for cause pursuant to a motion. Such motion shall be properly served, including on the Debtors and the Committee Professionals, and the hearing on such motion shall be noticed and scheduled, and any party may object to such motion. Nothing herein shall be deemed to preclude the Requesting Creditor from requesting (or the Committee or any other party from denying or objecting to such request, as applicable) that the Committee provide the Requesting Creditor with a log or other index of any information specifically responsive to the Requesting Creditor’s request that the Committee deems to be Confidential Information or Privileged Information. Further, nothing herein shall be deemed to preclude the Requesting Creditor from requesting (or the Committee or any other party from denying or objecting to such request, as applicable) that the Court conduct an in camera review of the information subject to the Information Request.
- d. Release of Confidential Information of Third Parties: If the Information Request implicates Confidential Debtor Information or Confidential Non-Debtor Information and the Committee agrees that such request should be satisfied, or if the Committee without a third party request wishes to disclose such Confidential Information to creditors, the Committee may demand such disclosure (a “Demand”) for the benefit of the Debtors’ creditors: (i) if the Confidential Information is Confidential Debtor Information, by submitting a written request to counsel for the Debtors requesting that such information be disclosed, and (ii) if the Confidential Information is Confidential Non-Debtor Information, by submitting a written request to such third party and its counsel of record (if any), with a copy to the Debtors’ counsel, requesting that such information be disclosed. If the Debtors or such other entity do not agree in writing within ten (10) days after receipt of the Demand to disclose such information, the Committee or the Requesting Creditor may file a motion seeking a ruling with respect to the Demand, and the Debtors or such other entity, as applicable, may file an objection to such motion. Demands submitted to counsel to the Debtors pursuant to this clause (d) shall be submitted by email to: James A. Stempel (jstempel@kirkland.com), Joseph M. Graham (joe.graham@kirkland.com), and Angela M. Snell (angela.snell@kirkland.com). The Committee will not be authorized to disclose Confidential Debtor Information or Confidential Non-Debtor Information absent an agreement in writing from the Debtors (or their professional advisors) or such other party, as applicable, or further order of the Court. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph (d) is subject to paragraph (b) above.

3. The Committee shall be permitted (solely to the extent set forth in this order or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court or the Bankruptcy Code), but is not required, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1102(b)(3)(A) to provide access to any Confidential Information to any creditor with a claim of the kind represented by the Committee.

4. The Committee shall not be required pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1102(b)(3)(A) to provide access to any Privileged Information to any creditor with a claim of the kind represented by the Committee. Nonetheless, the Committee shall be permitted, but not required, to provide access to Privileged Information or Confidential Committee Information to any party so long as (a) such Privileged Information or Confidential Committee Information does not include any Confidential Debtor Information or Confidential Non-Debtor Information and (b) any relevant privilege is held and controlled solely by the Committee.

5. Nothing in this Order shall diminish or modify any rights or obligations of the Committee or its members and representatives with respect to the protection of Confidential Information or any confidentiality agreement entered into with the Debtors or any other party (including the Committee's or its members' and representatives' rights to disclose Confidential Information as permitted under any such confidentiality agreement), which rights or obligations shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any provision of this Order.

6. None of the Debtors, the Committee, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, members, attorneys, consultants, advisors, or agents (acting in such capacity) (collectively, the “Exculpated Parties”), shall have to incur any liability to any entity (including the Debtors or their affiliates) for any act taken or omitted to be taken pursuant to the Creditor Information Protocol set forth herein; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not affect the liability of any Exculpated Party protected pursuant to this paragraph that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined in a final non-appealable order to have constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the foregoing, the exculpation provided in this paragraph shall be coextensive with any Exculpated Party’s qualified immunity under applicable law.

7. The Committee is hereby authorized to establish and maintain a Committee Website as described in the Motion.

8. The Committee is further authorized to utilize Prime Clerk as the Committee Information Agent to assist the Committee in creating and maintaining the Committee Website and with noticing and service of pleadings filed on behalf of the Committee. Prime Clerk shall be paid by the Debtors’ estates in accordance with the existing terms of the Debtors’ service agreement with Prime Clerk for professional services rendered on behalf of the Committee in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases.

9. Nothing in this Order shall expand, restrict, affirm, or deny the right, if any, of the Committee to provide access or not provide access to any information of the Debtors to any party except as explicitly provided herein.

10. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
